 Agency Liaisons: The Liaison is a communicating role (rather than a decision making or sponsorship role) to the agencies of the profession through representatives. Facilitates reports to Board of Directors, provides collegial input on text matters, Symposium and project regarding standards, professional positions, competencies and body of knowledge of naturopathic medicine. Participates on Symposium Steering Committee. No financial responsibilities are associated with this position. Liaisons may also be Editors; however these are distinct and separate functions.
